The F4 Qualifying session scheduled to take place at 16:20 on 31 July 2020 was cancelled for reasons of safety due to inclement weather conditions. The Stewards note that Article 34 of the Sporting Regulations does not specify how the grid for Race 1 is to be drawn up in the event that Qualifying is cancelled. The Stewards have considered this matter and determined that the grid for Race 1 will be drawn up based on F4 Championship driver points, the same manner in which the grid for Qualifying was to be drawn up, per Article 33.4.
